LABOUR COLLEGE APPLICATIONS

Deadline to apply is extended until October 25, 2023

Labour College, the Canadian Labour Congress' (CLC) flagship trade union leadership development program, is a unique learning opportunity for union leaders and active members to learn new skills and take on the challenges that face the labour movement. It provides university level courses on issues related to work and the rights of workers in Canada. It gives graduates the necessary tools to be effective leaders in their union, their labour council, and the wider labour movement for the benefit of all workers.

CUPW members in good standing are eligible to apply for this post-secondary program, which is offered in English. Francophones from Quebec may apply to attend Le Collège FTQ-Fonds <https://ftq.qc.ca/wp-content/uploads/2023/06/FTQ-LL-Programme-de-formation-syndicale-2023-2024.pdf>

The Labour College program aims to:

- build leadership skills and provide leadership tools;
- foster empowerment, self-confidence, and new networks of labour leaders;
- strengthen critical thinking skills;
- examine working class struggles and human rights issues that affect all workers; and
- create change.
