LABOUR COLLEGE APPLICATIONS

Labour College is open for applications until October 23, 2022

Labour College, the Canadian Labour Congress' (CLC) flagship trade union leadership development program, is a unique learning opportunity for union leaders and active members to learn new skills and take on the challenges that face the labour movement. It provides university level courses on issues related to work and the rights of workers in Canada. It gives graduates the necessary tools to be effective leaders in their union, their labour council, and the wider labour movement for the benefit of all workers.

CUPW members in good standing are eligible to apply for this post-secondary program, which is offered in English. Francophones from Quebec may apply to attend Le Collège FTQ-Fonds (Programme d'éducation syndicale 2022-2023 de la FTQ-LL - Fédération des travailleurs et travailleuses du Québec \(FTQ\)).

The program aims to:

- build leadership skills and provide leadership tools;
- foster empowerment, self-confidence, and new networks of labour leaders;
- strengthen critical thinking skills;
- examine working class struggles and human rights issues that affect all workers; and
- create change.

SUBJECTS

Foundations of Political Economy	Theory and Practice of Unions	Strategic Thinking, Planning and Project Development
Research and Communications Skills	Truth and Reconciliation	Leadership for Movement Building
Education for Action/Organizing for Change	Work and Workers in a Global World	Governance, Laws, and Policies

SCHEDULE*

Three intensive course sessions are offered over 14 months or longer. Each session includes online and in-person learning in addition to independent study. In-person classes are offered each year in British Columbia (BC) and/or Ontario.

SESSION 1: Unions in the Political Economy
