UNION SERVES NOTICE TO BARGAIN

Today, CUPW officially served notice to bargain to the Canada Post Corporation for both the Urban Operations and RSMC units.

Next Steps: Meetings Planned

We have scheduled our first meetings with the employer for November 15 and 16, with more dates to follow in the coming weeks.

At our first meeting, the Union will officially present our program of demands for both the Urban and RSMC units. With the referendum votes counted, a merger of the two bargaining units will now be one of our demands.
