

UNIFOR Local 464

c/o 100 – 550 West 6th Avenue, Vancouver, BC V5Z 4P2

Via email: deepak.chopra@canadapost.ca

July 5, 2016

Deepak Chopra, President and Chief Executive Officer
Canada Post Corporation
PO Box 90022
2701 Riverside Drive
Ottawa, ON K1V 1J8

Dear Mr. Chopra:

On behalf of the members of Unifor 464, I write to you today insist that Canada Post return to the bargaining table and negotiate a fair deal with the Canadian Union of Postal Workers.

The postal service and the work of CUPW members is crucial to the Canadian economy. A lockout of postal workers and the cessation of mail delivery will not be in anyone's interest. Our members expect Canada Post to return to the bargaining table and fairly negotiate a collective agreement with your employees. All Canadian workers deserve good pensions that will give them security in their retirement years. Stripping these types of benefits will not lead to any type of fair deal.

We expect that a negotiated settlement will be good for CUPW members and Canada Post, and will result in better postal services across the country.

Sincerely,

Chris Harris, President
Unifor 464
Office Phone: 604-871-1833
e-mail: charris@bctf.ca

cc: Mike Palecek, CUPW National President
Tim Armstrong, CUPW National Director—Pacific
The Right Honourable Justin Trudeau, Prime Minister of Canada
The Honourable MaryAnn Mihychuk, Minister of Employment, Workforce Development and Labour
The Honourable Rona Ambrose, Leader of the Opposition
The Honourable Thomas Mulcair, Leader of the New Democratic Party of Canada