RESOLUTION

Canadian Union of Postal Workers – A Public Service

- WHEREAS the federal government will be examining the way it handles the postal public service in its review of the Canadian Postal Service Charter;
- WHEREAS Canada Post has already made major cuts to service by closing or downsizing public post offices, eliminating mail delivery to some rural mailboxes and reducing the number of street letterboxes;
- WHEREAS the closures and/or service cuts will, among others, contribute to further devitalizing rural areas and isolating seniors and people with disabilities;
- WHEREAS the federal government and Canadians want to help seniors remain in their own homes;
- THEREFORE it is moved by Mr. Florent Bédard, seconded by Mr. Normand Houde, and unanimously resolved that representations be made to Stephen Harper, Prime Minister of Canada, so that all necessary steps are taken to ensure that the door-to-door mail delivery service provided by Canada Post is maintained as is, in the best interests of Canadians.
