

Save Canada Post Campaign in Québec for the Run-Up to Election Day

For Immediate Release

October 9, 2015

OTTAWA – The Canadian Union of Postal Workers are taking their Save Canada Post campaign tour to La Belle Province as Election Day draws closer. Postal workers are encouraging people to fight back against cuts to postal service by voting out the Conservatives who have been behind the cuts.

Stops are as follows:

Saturday October 10th

9 am - Campaign office of Karine Trudel, NDP candidate – 2196 St-Dominique, Jonquière.

Sunday October 11th

9 am- Dolbeau – 1100 boul. Walberg

11 am- Press conference with opposition parties and CUPW National Union Representative Denis Lemelin

Monday October 12th

8 am, noon - Festival de l'oie blanche de Montmagny

3 pm- Rivière-du-Loup – shopping mall and “Parc de la Pointe”

Tuesday October 13th

1:30 pm - Québec City

3:30 pm - Press conference with Serge Cadieux (FTQ) and Magali Picard (AFPC)

Wednesday October 14th

10h30 am - St-Agapt – 1159 rue Principale, Carrefour jeunesse emploi – World March of Women

Thursday October 15th

Victoriaville - Details TBA

Friday October 16th

Ste-Thérèse - Details TBA

Montreal - 1 pm press conference

More details may be posted at <http://www.savecanadapost.ca/en/node/5287>

For a more detailed tour itinerary, media interviews or further information, please contact Magali Giroux at 514-467-1940.

Call the Caravan directly at 613-293-0308

#savecanadapost