- ♦ Identify, assess, and recommend organizing targets, in collaboration with the CUPW organizing department
- ♦ Worksite mapping and contact list building
- ♦ Maintain database of workers
- ♦ Develop organizing campaign plans – including objectives and timelines
- ♦ Conduct outreach to workers – identify and train workplace leaders
- ♦ Prepare regular reports on campaigns.

Qualifications

- Must be a CUPW member in good standing.
- Ability to travel and work long, irregular hours – including weekends, early mornings, evenings, and late nights as needed

- Strong organization and communication skills
- Ability to work with others in a racially and culturally diverse membership
- Ability to work under pressure and with minimal supervision
- Ability to multi-task, set priorities, and meet deadlines
- Demonstrated history of union and community organizing experience
- Facilitation and training experience considered an asset
- Basic computer skills, including MS Word and MS Excel

As part of our commitment to reflect the diversity of our membership, CUPW encourages applications from women, Indigenous peoples, persons with disabilities, racialized people, French-speaking, multi-lingual people and 2SLGBTQ+ people.
