Season's Greetings

This year has been very difficult for us. We have been attacked by Canada Post and the Government, but we fought back. We would like to thank all the locals for their hard work, for public events, and for cavassing across the country. Everyone has been working hard; thank you!

It is very important to continue to fight back to Save Canada Post, but it is also important to fight for our Pension Plan, for Retirees and our active members. We all stand together in this.

Furthermore, we would like to thank our allies who have been working hand in hand with us through the year, and we will all continue to work in solidarity towards the future.

On this note, we would like to wish everyone some happy holidays and a happy new year. We are looking forward to working with you all next year.

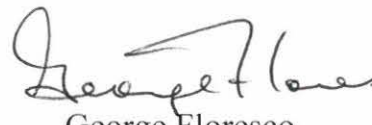

The struggle continues
